WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

$50M Game Changer

Working with Kris has been a game-changer, not just for me but for my whole company. It's not every day you get advice that ends up being worth $50M, but that's exactly what happened with Kris. Beyond the big financial wins, Kris has a knack for guiding you through the milty-gritty of running a tech company. Like when we were hiring our Director of Sales—his idea...

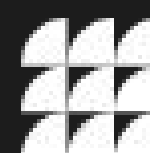

JP Richardson,
CEO Exodus Movement

Strong and Effective Advisor

While my own personal and professional journey has largely been centered on continuous growth and improvement, the value and impact of coaching is an undeniable responsibility for yourself and those you lead. Having engaged with Kris Kluver, he has been a strong and effective advisor as our company moves to manage change, foster a culture of accountability and high performance, and sustain momentum during a high growth environment more effectively.

Jennifer Byrne,
CEO, JAVARA

Reenergized Leadership

As a successful leader with more than 30 years of experience running $1B class efforts, I was skeptical that Kris could offer additional tools and approaches that I was not already aware of. Thankfully, I was proven wrong as his approaches for setting up an organization and creating a successful accountability structure have re-energized me and been a key part of my leadership success. As I take on new challenges, I will definitely be looking to partner with Kris and his team as I am now an evangelist of his approach.

Senior Director, Space and
